

CODE OF CONDUCT

Welcome to the library

The library is a public space offering a variety of services for all citizens to benefit from. Therefore, we ask you to comply with the following regulations:

- Show consideration – avoid loud talk, noise, running and other behaviour that can bother others. Trade, begging and sleeping is not allowed
- Please keep your voice low when using your mobile phone
- Roller skates, scooters, and skateboards are not allowed at the library
- Smoking, use of narcotics and use of electronic cigarettes is prohibited
- It is not allowed to drink alcohol in the library – certain events excepted based on preceding agreement.
- You are allowed to enjoy your own food and allowed drinks at the library – however not close to the library computers and other electronic equipment
- Waste must be put in the recycle bin
- Candles and other open fire prohibited
- Dogs and other animals are not allowed at the library. Service dogs and reading dogs excepted
- Rules for using computers and internet must be followed – please see further information at the computer areas
- Escape routes must not be blocked by furniture and other things
- If the anti-theft alarm is triggered at the entrance/exit, please contact staff
- Staff directions must be followed at all times

If failing to comply with the above stated regulations, and in case of other inappropriate behaviour, staff is allowed to ask a person to leave the library for a given period.